

Arlington Boy's Enthusiasm Touches Heart Of Benefactor

Members of the Arlington Boys' Club can thank a 13-year-old reporter on their club paper, Harold Shervington, for a recent renovations which make their clubhouse on Pond Lane one of the most modern and complete in Greater Boston.

It seems that Harold, of 10 Mt. Vernon St., who attends Arlington Junior High, decided to take matters into his own hands. Disdaining any and runs, delayed bucks or fancy plays, Harold went directly to the home of noted philanthropist and civic benefactor J. Willard Hayden, president of the Charles Hayden Foundation which has been responsible for so many Boston University buildings and large donations to charities, especially those featuring activities for boys.

A knock on the door was followed by an insistent request to see "the man who likes boys so much." Mr. Hayden, long since accustomed to brush aside many a "touch" from fakes, phonies and cranks, was not quite prepared for this frontal attack from one so young, but he decided to listen and get a word in edgewise. "Mr. Hayden, our bowling alleys are a disgrace. They're in such bad shape we can't even use them. And we need them." "But what bowling alleys, where are a disgrace?" Mr. Hayden asked.

Harold carefully went on to explain, in a few thousand well chosen words, that the bowling alleys he meant were at the Arlington Boy's Club and that 'fixing' the alleys wasn't all repairs that were necessary if 800 local boys were to have a clubhouse of which they could be proud.

Mr. Hayden was so impressed by Harold's straight-forward initiative, his boyish enthusiasm and love of bowling that he told the youngster to arrange a meeting with club officials so he could investigate what the boy unhesitatingly called a "disgraceful situation."

Rep. Keenan Files Resolve To Study Spy Pond Health Menace

Representative Henry E. Keenan after consulting with many interested groups requesting that the unsanitary and unsafe conditions of Spy Pond should be corrected, has filed a resolve in the House of Representatives for the coming session requesting that a committee acting as a joint board from the Metropolitan District Commission, State Board of Public Health, and the State Board of Public Works conduct an investigation of the weed growth and unsanitary condition of Spy Pond in Arlington.

Also to be included in this study is the matter of water level of the regulating the same. This pond for a number of years has been a dangerous spot for the health and safety of the people who live in the vicinity of the pond and those that use the same. Several drownings have occurred, both in the summer and winter. Many of these drownings being caused by the excessive weed growth at the pond. The rotting of the weed in the summer-time also causes an un-conducive to mosquito breeding.

Several fishermen use the pond throughout the fishing season and find that their sport is hampered with this excessive weed growth.

It is anticipated that upon the correction of this situation that the Department of Conservation will re-stock the pond with fish for the enjoyment of many of the fishermen around greater Boston.

The newly formed Spy Pond Rod and Reel Club has taken an active part in the promotion of the clean-up of Spy Pond. One of the noted fishermen who appears every year to fish at Spy Pond is the famous Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, an honorary member of the Spy Pond Rod and Reel Club.

To further improve the health and safety of this area, Rep. Keenan has filed a resolve in the House of Representatives.

Batchelor Named Chairman Patriot's Day Committee

At last Thursday's meeting called by the Arlington Board of Selectmen for the purpose of making plans for the coming 175th anniversary observance of Patriot's Day, April 19, 1950, held at the Hearing Room, William B. Batchelor was elected general chairman of the committee. Miss Dorothy Lucas was named secretary. Temporary chairman Charles O'Hara, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars turned the meeting over to the newly elected general chairman Batchelor, who was authorized to organize an executive committee, each member of which would be chairman of the various proposed events of this celebration.

The Patriot's Day observance will include, the parade, greatly augmented from that of former years, the usual reception to Revere and Dawes. A pageant planned for the night before the holiday and fireworks for the holiday evening. The re-enactment of the various events at some time during the day, is also planned, but are as yet tentative.

Many interested citizens attended, and the suggestions made by the group were many and varied. Mrs. Stanley Kingman was appointed to secure the military units, including tanks, bands, etc., as part of the parade. Representative Henry E. Keenan is to seek permission from the state legislature for the spending of extra-ordinary monies for the events. It was noted that Concord and Lexington have already granted appropriations of $10,000 and $12,000 respectively for the observance of Patriot's Day in those towns.

STATE TO SPEED UP ACTION ON RTE 2-A TRAFFIC HAZARDS

In line with recent suggestions for overcoming the serious traffic hazards, resulting in several fatalities and near fatalities, on Route 2-A, at Summer street, Arlington; made by Rep. Henry E. Keenan, asking for immediate action on the matter of speed control on both routes 2 and 2-A, the Department of Public Works, of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, has issued the following communication under date of November 25th, addressed to Rep. Keenan, in reply to his recent suggestions:

Dear Sir:

Your letter of September 29, 1949 listed a number of suggestions for overcoming traffic hazards on Summer Street, Route 2A. You commented upon the need of speed control on route 2and 2A, and requested a copy of Traffic volume figures on Route 60 in Arlington Center.

I am sorry to have neglected acknowledgment of your letter but, as yet, am unable to give you any definite information concerning the points raised.

The suggestions that signal installations might be needed at several intersections on Summer Street, has resulted in directing our District Highway Engineer to conduct an investigation and to submit a report. You will be advised of our findings when this report is completed.

The traffic counts in Arlington Center we find will require some additional work. You will receive summaries of these counts as soon as the tabulations are complete.

Concerning the speed zoning of Routes 2 and 2A on State highways, we plan to conduct these studies sooner than our plans called for. I feel that it is safe to predict that the zoning of both highways will take place in the early part of 1950.

Very truly yours,
Signed

P. S.

Representative Keenan has also received acknowledgment of his letter requesting investigation of the traffic hazard at the corner of Lake Street and Concord Turnpike. This intersection has been a danger spot for a number of years and recently a serious accident occurred here.

The official invitation was received on November 25, together with a guarantee of $3000. Arlington residents must now raise at least $8,000. The ways and means were discussed at a first meeting held in the high school last Friday afternoon.

A trio of men were responsible for the Arlington bid, Bill Sullivan, DaDny McFadden and Henry Toczylowski were the local men behind the scene and in the south were Fred Digby, Bernie Greenwood and Frank Leahy. The first two are members of the committee that

Arlington Red Cross Needs Volunteer Workers At Once

The Arlington workrooms of the Red Cross at 661 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, are busy places these fall pre-holiday days. The rooms are open from ten a.m. until four p.m. every Monday, for surgical dressings and sewing. From six hundred to one thousand dressings are made each week.

Over 200 boxes, filled by the school children for Christmas gifts, were taken into Chapter Headquarters on Nov. 11. Mrs. Raymond C. Morrill, Jr. Red Cross Chairman, Mr. Morrill and Mr. Fred Collier assisted Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Charlotte Graig, of the Motor Corps in loading the Station Wagon, with the two back seats taken out, it was completely filled.

Arlington school children are to be commended for their splendid contribution to Christmas happiness. At the workrooms hundreds of dolls have been stitched for the Junior Red Cross to stuff and dress for the D. P. children and to be sent overseas, also large red stockings, to be filled and sent to the Veterans Hospitals.

Stitchers are needed for Layettes and hospital supplies. Playing cards, 'Thrillers' and magazines are needed for the Veterans. Drop in at the workrooms and see the work that is being done.

Miss Norton's group at the Unitarian Church, Mrs. Beck's group at the Baptist Church and Mrs. Kittredge's group, have started their work for the winter.

The Production Service of the Boston Chapter of Red Cross also needs volunteers, hundreds of volunteers, to help fold surgical dressings, states Mrs. George L. Wrenn, 11, chairman of the service.

The surgical dressings workrooms are open from 9 A.M. until 5 P.M. Mondays through Fridays and on Tuesdays, the workrooms are open until 9 P.M. If you have any free time during the week volunteer to fold surgical dressings for Red Cross, they are greatly needed. A special appeal is being made at this time for volunteers for Tuesday evenings.

For further information call the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of Red Cross at Kenmore 6-6226 or drop in at the Production workrooms at 17 Gloucester street and see the mounds of gauze just waiting for volunteers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Callahan, of West Roxbury (the former M. TINY TOTS MAKE HEADLINES

The tiny tots who attend the Bartlett school, Arlington, under the expert tutorage of Mrs. Norine R. Casey, made the rotogravure section of a recent Sunday edition of the Boston Globe, when they were photographed circled around their teacher, Alice Kennedy, for the day's lesson. And the questions they ask would certainly stump the experts.

FOR CIGAR SMOKERS

With a new tax going on cigars shortly, Cigar smokers should be interested in Vacuum Packed Cigars, guaranteed to keep fresh for five years. These cigars are made and packed in Tampa, Florida, (the Cigar City) and a five year supply should keep the average smoker in stock until this tax is abolished. The motto of the Celtic Cigar Co. 636 Dudley St. Boston, is that if you can't stop smoking as an act of protest against the Cigar Tax, buy enough Vacuum Packed Cigars to last five years.

Arlington Eleven Ends Perfect Year With Holiday Win

By FRANK MAHONEY
Arlington High Schools undefeated, untied, powerhouse ran over, around and under a winless and bewildered Melrose eleven to the tune of 27-0, last Thursday morning before a crowd of some 6000 fans at the Warren A. Pierce Field in Arlington.
CLASS "A" CHAMPS
This, the final win indeed, enabled Coach Henry Toczykowski's team to emerge as the co-winners of the Class "A" championship tying with Lowell High which also won its final game of the season.
The Arlington lads, having probably heard the rumors floating around that a bowl bid had been made, did all of their scoring in the first half of the game. Paul Salisbury, the junior left halfback and scoring ace of the club, accounted for three of his teams four touchdowns. Salisbury scored on runs of 33 yards, 17 yards and four yards respectively. The fourth Arlington touchdown was scored in the second quarter by fleet footed Don O'Brien, junior right halfback. Coach Toczykowski put his second team on the field in the third period in order that the score would not be too brutal. The weak Melrose team could do nothing but chalk up its only two successive first downs of the game and during this period they also managed to climb past the midfield marker for the only time in the game.
FIRST PLAY SCORES
Arlington lost the toss and had to kick off. Holden the Melrose fullback, received on the Melrose 10 and ran the ball back to the 25 yard stripe. Two plays got no where and they kicked. The ball was received on the Arlington 40 and run back to the Melrose 34. On the next play Cosgrove handed off to Salisbury who raced 33 yards for the first Arlington tally. Oppedisano missed the point and Arlington led 6-0.

Following the kickoff, which the Melrose eleven received on their own 20, they attempted two plays on the ground which netted them only four yards and Holden's kick gave Arlington the ball on its own 39. Don O'Brien then ripped off 3 first downs in a row, placing the ball on the Melrose five, his last run being a 26 yard dash.
On the next play Arlington fumbled and Melrose recovered and attempted a kick which fell short on their own 25. The next play saw Arlington's Don O'Brien scamper 19 yards to the Melrose six and then carry the ball over for the second tally of the game. Oppedisano kicked the point and Arlington led 13-0.
TRIPLE THREAT SCORES
The second quarter opened with the ball on the Arlington 25 after Melrose kicked from their own 23. On the first play Don O'Brien was handed the ball and with the whole team in front of him galloped to the Melrose 12. Muello carried to the eight and Salisbury ran around right end and over for the third touchdown. Oppedisano very obligingly kicked the point and Arlington led 20-0.
The Melrose defenses took a turn for the better in the middle stages of the second period and became very rigid. This however was futile as Arlington scored again.
STATUE OF LIBERTY MAKES COMEBACK
Shades of Charlie O'Rourke! With the ball on the Melrose 42 yard line the Arlington club resorted to one of the oldest plays of football, The Statue of Liberty. It caught the Melrose eleven completely off guard and O'Brien went down to the Melrose 20. On the next play Don O'Brien carried again and went to the 15. The ball was then given to Paul Salisbury who, with the effective blocking of Dick Muello, went over standing up for the fourth and final Arlington tally. Charlie Oppedisano made his third straight conversion and Arlington was on its way to the Bowl by a score of 27-0.
The second half of the game saw the Arlington second team come into action, and although they were not as effective as the first squad they did not allow Melrose past

Champ Notes

The courtesy seats for the families of the Melrose players were placed on the sidelines from the 30 to the ten yard stripe. A nice gesture from the Arlington High Athletic Association.
Something new has been added. A touch of college ball was in evidence with the many signs and swaying students on the Arlington side of the field.
"Doc" McCarty the track team coach, was eyeing RHB Don O'Brien very suspiciously, as he scampered up and down the field. Looks like we might have a new Arlington track star, thought Doc.
With bowl rumors floating all over the place, the Arlington High, "collection for the bowl," committee wasted no time in putting up "Kick In" signs. Good luck on your collections men.
The Melrose band gave their rendition of the seasons of the year, as they played music appropriate to Spring, Summer, Fall and Winter.
The Arlington Band not to be outdone, played a traditional and very impressive number, the Thanksgiving Prayer, as all the band members kneeled.
The Arlington High Eleven has not been scored upon in any of its last six games, A great record.
This year marks the first time in the history of the school that Arlington has had a class "A" championship team. Congratulations are extended to Arlington's Coach Henry Toczykowski, Line Coach James A. Cavaliere and Assistant Coach Ed Burns.
The Arlington 43 yard line. In the eyes of all the spectators Coach Henry Toczykowski showed excellent sportsmanship in not allowing the score to be run up any higher.
ARLINGTON TOYS WITH VISITORS
The Arlington High champs were so superior in every department of play throughout the game that it seemed as though they were hinking of nothing but bowls and turkeys and were toying with the Melrose club in order to work up an appetite. Arlington scored 15 first downs to the Melrose two and 27 points to the visitors goose-egg.

AHS Bowl Bid-

11th or 18th of December. Play-offs are now being held down south to determine the southern contender for the tilt.
At a meeting which was held in the Town Hall on November 29, the ways and means of raising the funds necessary to promote the southern trip were discussed and approved.
The opening guns of the campaign will be fired tomorrow, Friday afternoon, which has been designated the tag days. There will be collectors on the streets with blue cans into which a contribution of any denomination may be dropped. The Tag days will lend Saturday night at 6 p.m.
The house to house collections will commence on Saturday morning and be carried on until Sunday night. The collectors on the house to house drive, will be made up of High School students. It is hoped that the same enthusiasm will be shown when reaching for the pocket book as was shown when it appeared as though Arlington had been forgotten as a bowl team.
Each collector will carry a solicitors sheet with him which will be numbered in the upper right hand corner. These numbered sheets will be the only way in which you may identify an authorized collector. It is also requested that each donor contribute a dollar bill or more and sign his or her name to the collector's sheet. If one should not want his name known, he may sign it "a friend". The reason for the signing is to facilitate accounting for the money collected and avoid misrepresentation.
Large contributions, or those which will be paid by check, can be sent to the Arlington National Bank in Arlington center, the headquarters for the fund, in care of Treasurer Bowl Committee. Check must be made payable to A. H. S. Bowl Committee.
$1150 has already been donated by various residents of the town. The Arlington Youth Association is planning to contribute the proceeds of its Friday night dance. The Elks are planning to stage a show and donate the proceeds. The Touchdown Club has already began soliciting its members, along with the Police and Fire departments. It is sincerely hoped by all who have worked so hard to organize this campaign, that every person in the Town who is able to give any amount of money no matter how large or small, will contribute generously in order that our State Champion Team which has brought great honor to the town will be able to go on this trip.
The men responsible for the organization of the entire trip are: James J. Golden, Town Clerk and Chairman of the Bowl Committee; Daniel J. McFadden, Supt. of Parks and Secretary of the Committee; Ernest S. Parsons, Arlington Nat'l Bank, Treasurer of the Committee.

Psychiatrist At Jewish Centre

The monthly meeting of the Arlington Jewish Community Center was held Tuesday, November 15th, at the American Legion hall in Arlington.
The speaker of the evening was Dr. Stanley Kantor whose topic was "Social Conflicts in Our Daily Lives." Dr. Kantor is a consultant in psychiatry at the U. S. Public Health Service and is a senior physician at the Boston Psychopathic Hospital. Dr. Kantor's talk was followed by a question period.
President Eli Reingold called upon the chairman of the Ad Book Committee, Martin Hoffman and the chairman of the Religious Committee Max W. Rosenthal to give their reports.

What Does the Label Say?

Don't depend on your memory when you measure out the dose of your prescribed medicine! Carelessness and improper dosage may render your medicine ineffective. Remember, your doctor has prescribed both the medicine—and the proper dosage—after careful consideration of your age, your physical condition, and the requirements of your illness. Read the label carefully! And measure out your dosage according to its instructions. By doing so, you assist the medicine to perform its function and restore your good health.

Former Capt. Rally Speaker

Wednesday, November 24, saw a gala pre-game rally staged at the Old Hall in the High School. The main speaker at the event was Charles Kent, past captain of the 1947 Arlington High Football team and star fullback of the present Boston University squad.
Mr. Raymond Morrill, principal of the High School was the first speaker. Mr. Morrill told the team and the students that they should be as proud of their band as they are of their team for both have brought much honor to the school during the past season. Mr. Morrill also expressed the Faculty's congratulations to the team who, "Have been a credit to the school both scholastically and in attendance." "They have not missed one class during the entire season", said the principal.
The line coach James A. Cavaliere and assistant coach Ed Burns of the team, spoke, and thanked the students for their co-operation and much needed backing during the past football era and hoped that the team would go to victory.
The last speaker was Charlie University. Charlie told the boys not to let happen to them what had happened to the Boston U. squad his past year. Chuck said "As you know we played a great school from Maryland and lost by only one point, which in my estimation was a moral victory." "We also thought of St. Bonaventure as a team from the hills, the same way as you are thinking of Melrose." "We were supposed to beat the Bonnies 50 - 0. You all know the final score of that one, 19-0 the wrong way." "Melrose", he said, "Would like nothing better than to win this one, so remember, those helmets that you wore last week had better fit tomorrow. Don't let your heads get too big." "Keep your hats on your heads and Arlington will be on the winning end".

SNOWS CELEBRATE 52nd ANNIVERSARY

NAMED CHAIRMAN

At a recent meeting held in Robbins town hall, on the proposed indoor sports center to be erected on land adjacent to the Warren A. Peirce Field, G. Bertram Washburn was elected general chairman of the committee.

Christmas Comes To Arlington Theme Of Three Day Sales Event

The theme of "Christmas Comes to Arlington" will usher in the opening of the Christmas shopping season here on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 1, 2 and 3, when the retail stores from one end of the town to the other, will be ablaze with holiday displays and complete stocks of attractive merchandise for Christmas giving.

At a recent luncheon meeting of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce, held at the Winchester Country Club, plans for the most ambitious program ever inaugurated here for the Christmas season, were formulated, and enthusiastically discussed by the large group present.

More than twenty merchants of the town at that time indicated their intention of cooperating one hundred per cent to put the town of Arlington "squarely on the Christmas shopping map," through their promotion of this early December holiday selling event.

Displays of seasonal Christmas merchandise of every description are now being assembled and may be seen in the windows and on the counters of almost all of Arlington retail stores.

As a special inducement for early buying valuable merchandise prizes, including a television set, small table radios, etc., are to be offered to the early-buying public. These prizes are on display at the Ben Franklin stores at the Heights, Alsons' Shoe store, in Arlington center, and Atwood's in East Arlington.

The cooperation of the buying public is urgently asked, and "shop early in your own home town" - where complete and novel stocks of merchandise are available, is the slogan for making the Christmas season of 1949 the best in the history of Arlington.

Christmas Rush In Full Swing At P. O.

The early shopping for Christmas movement has really taken hold as evidenced by reports from store executives and by the present mail volumes, according to Postmaster MacInnis. "It is clearly evident," he said, "that the public are buying their Christmas gifts far earlier than ever before for the reason that it offers them a greater length of time to shop in leisure and there is a wider selection of merchandise from which to choose their gifts. Most important it permits the last few weeks before Christmas to the little things which make Christmas in the home, decorations, planning for guests, wrapping gifts, and shopping for the Christmas dinner, without the tiring efforts of former years," continued the postmaster.

It is being reflected in the post-office and we hope that the public will follow the official closing dates which have been established to assure the delivery of all gifts and greeting cards in time for Christmas. If parcels are to be mailed they must be deposited earlier because of the already enormous volume of parcel post which is being received. As a matter of fact, postal officials report that the huge South Postal Annex has been taxed to the utmost and it has already become necessary to take over huge areas in the Boston Army Base to distribute parcel post and additional space is being acquired at the Watertown Arsenal.

Packages must be wrapped more securely and a duplicate address should be obtained in each package for double protection. Special delivery or special handling is recommended, especially during the Christmas season. Commercial shippers would do well to send distant packages by air parcel post.

Hold Quiet Observance

Dr. and Mrs. Peter S. Baker, of 222 Gray street Arlington, quietly celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary on Wednesday last. Married in Springfield, the couple have made their home in this town for the past 32 years. Dr. Baker is a dentist. There are two sons, one daughter, and eight grandchildren.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN HEAR TAX EXPERT

At last Wednesday's meeting of the Women's Republican club of Arlington, held in the American Legion hall, the speaker was Arthur C. Conley, assistant director of Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers Association. Mrs. Raymond W. Wheller, vice chairman of the Republican Committee, attended as a guest. Refreshments were served by the committee under Mrs. Joseph Letzelter and Mrs. Charles Larden, co-chairmen.

Boy Scout News

Under the very efficient leadership of Scoutmaster John M. Wilfert members of Troop 2 have been having an instructive constructive and enjoyable time as they meet each Monday night at Trinity Baptist Church.

Before dispersing for the summer the troop had met a number of times at the YMCA in Somerville for periods of swimming. In June a trip to the Happy Homes Bakeries Plant gave more than 18 boys an insight into the step by step procedure that brings to being the fine breads cakes, etc. that this company sells. Of course the group enjoyed samples along the way. The last meeting of the season was parents night when exhibits and demonstrations of Boy Scouts skills was the feature of the evening. There were about 30 parents present. The cakes being generously supplied by some of the mothers.

At least 10 boys attended Sachem Camp during the summer periods.

On November 7, 27 boys were taken to the Harvard Observatory where they heard a 30 minute lecture on astronomy.

The anticipation of a good time with Johnny, brought out 10 boys to an overnight trip at Camp Oak on November 12 and 13.

The very next evening November 14, 25 boys attended an inter troop swimming meet at the Perkins Institute for the Blind in Watertown. The match brought a scoring of 21 to 28 in favor of Perkins.

Transportation was provided by Mrs. Luvann McKiel, mother of a troop member, committeemen Charles Hutchinson and Ed Stacey, Mr. Cahalac, father of a candidate and Scoutmaster John Wilfert.

ation." The meeting was arranged and Mr. Hayden accompanied by Harold James H. Summer, executive director, and Maurice Sandler, president, made a personal inspection of the clubhouse. He found that conditions were even worse than Harold had claimed. The result was that Mr. Hayden decided not only to underwrite repairs to the bowling alleys but others to the shower and locker rooms as well.

When the annual Open House took place last night, (Wednesday Nov. 30) several hundred parents and friends saw some of the finest alleys to be found anywhere in the city. The alleys, which were badly warped, have been realigned by jacking up one corner of the building; there are four new pits, a new fire exit with electric sign, new team benches, score tables, pins, rubber mats, and control booth; in addition the walls have been covered with celotex tile, the alleys scraped and refinished and the balls refinished as well. A new lighting system featuring reflector type lamps has also been installed and a new entrance built.

But that is only the beginning, indissolving the overall rebuilding. The locker room has been cleaned up and a new asphalt floor laid, and the walls lined with masonite. The shower room now has gleaming new white enamel walls.

Thanks to the initiative of 13 year old Harold Shervington, who proves a good reporter can make his own story, the Arlington Boys Club now has modernized, up-to-date bowling alleys and clubhouse. And Harold can well be proud that he doesn't need to take a lesson

Arlington Man
Takes Own Life

Albert E. Peterson, 49, of Long-fellow road, Arlington committed suicide late Saturday afternoon by inhaling fumes from the exhaust of his automobile, which were carried into the closed car through a hose attached to the exhaust pipe. Dr. Leo T. Myles, of Cambridge, the medical examiner, stated that Peterson was a suicide, by carbon monoxide poisoning. Services were held on Tuesday, November 29, at two o'clock from the Berglund funeral home, 292 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington. Mr. Peterson was a member of the

FEATURED IN SKATING SHOW

Miss Janice Paree, daughter of Arthur J. Paree of 43 Harlow street, Arlington, participated in the skating show "Daughter of Rosie O'Grady" at the Co-ed Roller drome in Allston on Tuesday and Wednesday. Miss Paree is a junior at Arlington high school. The show was presented to entertain the roller skating rink operators convening in Boston.

from Dale Carnegie. He already has his own successful system of making friends and influencing philanthropists.

Harold's many club activities, in addition to bowling include playing the drums in the A.B.C. (Arlington Boy's Club) Wranglers and playing basketball for the champion Red Devil Juniors. That is in addition to being a reporter for the "Target", weekly club paper which won't lack for any news as long as Harold is on the staff.

Arlington Junior
Woman's Club

The regular meeting of the Arlington Junior Woman's Club was held recently at the Robbins Memorial Library Hall. The guest speaker was Mrs. George Cheever who gave the girls many helpful hints on how to prepare light snacks.

The girls have organized a choral group, which they hope will be ready to perform around Christmas. The leader of this group is Miss Jean Sullivan.

A board meeting of the club was held at the home of the recording secretary, Miss Irene Lopez.

ARLINGTON HADASSAH
DONOR LUNCHEON

On Tuesday afternoon, Arlington Chapter of Hadassah, held a donor luncheon at the Hotel Somerset, in Boston. Mrs. Milton Herman presided, and Mrs. Myer Berman, president gave the welcoming greetings to members and friends. The guest speaker was Mrs. Charles E. Wyzanski Jr.

Rep. Keenan-

an has included in his resolve the investigation of the land owned by the M. D. C., which starts at Lake street, Arlington, and includes the pond known as Little Spy Pond, the Wellington Brook, and the Alewife Brook. This great marsh area has been an unsightly, unhealthy area for a great many years, and it is believed with proper drainage much of this land can be reclaimed for better public use. One of the best uses for this land will be the establishment of a new M. T. A. terminal at this point, which would be the continuation of the Harvard Square Rapid Transit. This would be accomplished by continuing the subway under Massachusetts avenue, to Porter Square, then along the Fitchburg Division of the B & M Railroad to the West Cambridge-Arlington area. From this point, trackless trolleys or busses could service the towns of Arlington, Belmont, and Watertown. This would open up Massachusetts Avenue from the Lexington line to Harvard Square and create a new, broad highway into Boston. It is believed by those in authority that this would increase the M. T. A. riders from the whole general area north and west of Boston as ample parking space could be arranged at this point therefore taking many of the automobiles off the streets of Boston and be a greater improvement to the traffic conditions in Greater Boston. The remaining part of this land not used for M. T. A. purposes could be developed for further public use and create an attractive area, which is now covered by an unsightly swamp and unkept river bed.

Local Educators Attend Industrial Conference

Many local teachers and educators attended the regional conference held in Arlington during the past week, sponsored by the Massachusetts Industrial Education Society. The Tuesday evening meeting was held at the Junior High school center. Manual arts teachers were present from Winchester, Newton, Medford, Fitchburg, Boston, Malden, Somerville, Framingham, Weston and Lexington.

The meeting was opened by Mr. Arthur E. Robinson at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Clifford Hall, Superintendent of Schools, and Mr. James Powers, principal of Junior High School Center, extended greetings to the assembly.

The group spent the evening in inspection of facilities, discussions of curriculum content, methods of instruction, etc.

Discussions were on the Junior High School level. Mr. Ralph F. Giolosa of the Junior High School West, Mr. John T. McNally of the Junior High School East and Mr. Arthur L. Russell, Jr., of the Junior High School East, were the hosts.

The Lyndon Goodwins Mark Anniversary

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon R. Goodwin, of 21 Alpine street, Arlington Heights, on the occasion of their 51st wedding anniversary, which they observed on Wednesday, November 23rd. The family of five children, fifteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren joined in celebrating the event at a family dinner party on Thanksgiving day. There are five living generations in the family. Mrs. Goodwin's mother, Mrs. Fannie Hadley, who will celebrate her ninety-first birthday on December 31st, rounding out this group. Mrs. Hadley makes her home with the Goodwins.

Brotherhood Is Theme

The Crosby P.T.A. inaugurated a program to promote brotherhood at its first meeting recently.

Mrs. Philip Sherwood gave a talk entitled "Be Proud of Your Heritage", appealing to each member of the audience to begin in his or her own circle to practice brotherhood and understanding of others.

In these days of a shrinking world in which arises an urgent need for international understanding there should be attempts on a small scale as well as the large to promote understanding among people of different nationalities. It is felt that the prejudices of future generations will never be eradicated until parents rid themselves of their own prejudices. They can do this through contact and understanding of others. By "others" is meant all others, regardless of color, race, religion, or anything else that is different from one's own. Certainly the quality of being different is no basis for judgment and it is felt that we all can improve and develop feelings of brotherhood. Is it not possible that the sum total of effort by each person everywhere, would eventually lead to world peace?

At each of the monthly meetings of the Crosby P.T.A., a different nationality is to be presented. These include Italian Night on November 15, Scotch-English Night on December 13, Irish Night on March 14, and Scandinavian Night on April 11. People of these nationalities are asked to come forward and contribute examples of art, cooking, music, handwork, etc. to be exhibited at the meeting.

Police Chief Bullock Offers Safety Hints

Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock warned motorists today that with the approach of winter weather, their chances of having an accident are materially increased. He said this warning is based on tests and statistical facts. He urged all drivers and pedestrians to use extra care during the season of increased hazards ahead.

The best way to avoid a smash-up, he said, is to follow certain fundamental driving rules laid down by experts, based upon years of experience and the study of hundreds of thousands of accidents. These rules, Chief Bullock explained, have been formulated by the National Safety Council as a result of extensive scientific tests and research.

Here they are:

1. When starting on ice or snow get the "feel" of the road surface. Test your braking and acceleration when clear of other cars.

2. Reduce speed when road surfaces are snowy or icy. Remember that it takes 3 to 12 times more distance to stop on snow or ice than on dry pavement.

3. Keep snow and ice off the outside of the windshield as well as fog and frost inside. Be sure your defroster is working and that wiper blades really wipe clean. Watch out for pedestrians.

4. When treacherous snow or ice prevail, use steel tire chains.

They reduce braking distance for cars and trucks about 40 to 70 percent, and provide the "go" traction often needed.

5. Use an intermittent brake application. Normal application of brakes on an icy or snowy surface may lock wheels and throw vehicle out of control.

6. If possible, have tires with good treads. They provide better stopping ability on both dry and wet pavement. But even new rubber treads do not give normal traction on packed snow or ice. Tests also show that "rubber chains" sometimes skid farther than bare tires on ice. So "don't skid yourself".

Chief Bullock said that experience shows that in northern states, the winter traffic accident death rate jumps to 24 to 53 percent above the summer figure, and that this almost entirely due to more difficult driving conditions, including ice and snow on highways, and shorter daylight hours.

"With more drivers on the road than ever before, every driver must exercise extra caution," he said. "It may save his own life, to say nothing of the lives of others. If every driver in Arlington will observe these six driving rules, then accidents this winter can be kept to a minimum. As the National Safety Council says, 'the life you save may be your own.'"

Electric System Announces Changes In Personnel Dec. 1

Irwin L. Moore, President of New England Electric System, announces the following organizational changes to become effective December 1, 1949.

Newell A. Clark, for the last five years in charge of New England Electric System companies in Western Massachusetts, succeeds Thomas G. Digan as principal officer of the Mystic Valley and North Shore Districts with headquarters in Malden. Mr. Digan leaves his present position to take over the presidency of New England Electric System's largest operating subsidiary company, the Narragansett Electric Company in Providence Rhode Island. He will make his headquarters in Providence.

Newell A. Clark, who comes to Malden to direct the activities of the companies in this area which includes the Arlington Gas Light Company, has been associated with New England Electric System since 1921. After attending Clarkson School of Technology, he began his utility career as a Station Foreman at Bellows Falls, Vermont and has had wide utility experience, particularly the operation of retail gas and electric companies. He is married and has one son, a student at the University of New Mexico. He plans to move into the Malden area in the near future.

Thomas G. Digan, the new president of the Narragansett Electric Company, is a native of Wakefield, Massachusetts. A graduate of Holy Cross College where he excelled in athletics, and of Boston University Law School, he has been associated with New England Electric System companies since 1928. While at Malden, he was active in civic and community affairs, last summer serving as General Chairman of the Malden Tercentenary. He is married, has six children, and plans to move his family to Providence in the near future.

Things to Remember

William Gordon of Roxbury came to Lexington on the afternoon of April 19, 1775 to get the news at first hand. In 1778 he published a four volume history of American Revolution. In it is the first reference to the famous remark, credited to Samuel Adams, "Oh, what a glorious morning is this."

Charles Hudson, in his History of Lexington written in 1886, quotes Adams as saying "What a glorious morning for America is this." In 1875 Mr. Hudson was responsible for the preparation of the town seal and on it placed the words "What a Glorious Morning for America." Expressive, but not accurate, nor did "America" exist in 1775.

Nursing Home Federation Fights Unlicensed Homes

A number of local nursing homes operating under Massachusetts Public Health licenses are members of the Massachusetts Federation of Nursing Homes which this week through its General Counsel, Attorney Orvis H. Saxby, announced its intention to seek enforcement of the state law requiring all private homes in which three or more persons are receiving nursing care of over 65 years of age, to be licensed. Chapter 111, Section 73 of the General Laws provides that any person establishing or maintaining a convalescent or nursing home or boarding home for the aged without a license shall, for a first offense, be punished by a fine of not more than $5000.00 and for the second offense, by a fine of not more than $10,000.00 or by imprisonment for not more than 2 years.

Investigation discloses that in nearly every town and city there are a number of unlicensed nursing and boarding homes which are not subject to the periodic inspection by the Massachusetts Department of Public Safety and Department of Public Health required for licensed homes. Those who have complied with the law and obtained state licenses have been required to provide the maximum possible in the way of safety measures and are also obliged to maintain qualified employees and adequate supervision of their patients. The Federation office has requested its members to report immediately for investigation, the name of any firm or individual operating a nursing or boarding home in violation of the State Law.

Red Cross Gives Hints For Avoiding Colds

The Home Nursing Service of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter of Red Cross is very much aware of the season of colds, which is off to an excellent start this fall and offers a few suggestions that will help you avoid the common colds.

There are a few conditions that tend to lower resistance to colds; the first, is overheated rooms, especially those in which the air is very dry; another, chilling of the body surface, through wet clothes, wet feet or sitting in a draft, and, most important, loss of rest and sleep. These are the conditions that are most favorable to developing colds. Avoid them.

Now, even with the best precautionary measures, it is possible for the healthiest person to develop a cold if sufficiently exposed, because the common cold is a communicable disease, passed from one person to another.

Early signs of a cold vary in different people. One might feel a sense of chilliness for some time before any other discomfort is noticed. There may be a headache or an aching sensation in the whole body, or the eyes may burn and skin feel hot. Perhaps a dry feeling in the nose and frequent sneezing follows.

The first two days after the onset of a cold is the period when it is most communicable claims the Home Nursing Service. It's the period when the victim of the cold needs good judgment and good care.

Red Cross Home Nursing Service advises the best thing to do when you feel a cold coming on is to go to bed, where you can keep warm. Keep your room temperature about 65 degrees and well ventilated. Drink abundantly of water and fruit juices and eat lightly. Sleep as much as possible. If the cold seems severe and the body temperature is high, call your doctor at once.

More than half of all absences from work and school are caused by colds. Try to avoid certain care less habits and customs that are most likely to help you catch cold and keep in mind the few general health rules that are of real help in preventing colds.

Dress for the weather, wear light clothes for heavy work, but keep extra clothes handy to put on when the work is done. Eat a varied diet and in moderation. Meat, milk, green vegetables and fruit are better for you than rich pastries and sweets. At plenty of rest, sleep regular hours each night. Keep clean, wash your hands well before handling food.

Important Facts About Tracing Superfluous Hair

During our life span, it is common knowledge that we constantly undergo changes, both physical and mental, and it may be that at some stage, we are among the many who become afflicted with superfluous hair, much to our embarrassment and annoyance. There is no need for undue alarm in most cases, as your physician will readily verify, and he will in all probability advise you to have the growth permanently removed. At this time, the trained and skilled operators of the Thermique System of Epilation can safely, speedily and permanently banish the problem forever. Since as many as 1600 hairs can be removed in one hour, this method is actually the least expensive to employ.

If one were to count the cost of the many preparations on the market offering temporary relief and the time needed for their use over many years, it would be readily understood that Thermique actually saves time and money, in addition to permanently solving the problem.

Married For 51 Years

Belated congratulations are extended to the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Gilbert Ayers, of 51 Mentomy road, Arlington, on the observance of their fifty-one years of wedded happiness. He has been officially connected with a number of organizations in the Universalist church at large. The Ayres have two children: Miss Charlotte Ayers, teacher of French and Spanish in the North Kingston, R. I. high school, and Dr. Gilbert Ayres, director of research in the Brooklyn branch of the American Cyanamid Corporation.

"Here's the Pitch"

By "Bump" Hadley
WBZ-TV Sportscaster and Former Major League Pitcher

IF I HAD a chance to start my baseball career all over again, I believe I'd try to develop some real "screwball" tendencies. (And please don't bother to write in to say that you think I'm a "screwball" now.) Bill Veck and his associates sold the Cleveland Indian baseball property for approximately two and a quarter million dollars.

They bought that same property in 1946 for one and one-quarter million dollars. A neat profit of a million dollars, almost 100 percent in a little more than three years' time.

Veck increased the valuation with his "screwball" tactics, giving away orchids to lady guests, handing fans a cake of ice, an old horse, anything that came to mind. He even hired a couple of comedians as coaches.

Take a look at the big money men of recent years in baseball. Many of them were professional "screwballs." Dizzy Dean, Bobo Newsome, Vernon Gomez, Larry MacPhail, Charlie Grimm, Casey Stengel and a dozen others.

I say professional "screwballs." When you get right down to it, you would find it difficult to find a more astute group of businessmen than that little coterie I have just named. But they all developed that flair for showmanship, the little unpredictable characteristics that the crowd loves. The sports writers label this "color."

These men get the publicity because they give the press and radio something to write and talk about. Each one of these men added a touch of genius to the whole business.

It pays off.

Taking over the rambling boat-house, which was the social center of a large group known as the Middlesex Sportsman's Association, the Boy's Club board realized that several changes were in order if the building was to give its best in point of view from the Boy's Club angle.

The House Committee under Chairman Walter T. Kenny worked extra hard in the summer of '41. They fully realized the importance of a good gym in a Boys Club. The old boathouse had a fine long room measuring 40 x 70 and this the House Committee concluded would make a swell gym.

Some of the obstacles to be overcome were plaster walls, a big stage at one end and several glass folding doors. A rather low ceiling was also an unwelcome feature of this room.

The House Committee worked very closely with the contractors and when the plaster dust had finally all settled a real gym had been created. Gone were the glass partitions, gone were the plaster walls, now covered with hard tempered Masonite and best of all the stage had been removed and the ceiling had been elevated.

That the creation of a decent gym is paying off can be found in the testimony of Physical Directors of other Boys Clubs around Eastern Massachusetts when they describe the calibre of the Arlington Boys' Club basketball players.

Continuing the renovations in July and August 1948 President William Adams saw the outside of the building completely painted. This was a big job in as much as the club is very rambling and has hundreds of small size panes of glass which consume many hours of time in painting. During this time the interior took on a new look with a new Control Room, T. V. Room, and the renovation of the conference and intermediate rooms. The close of 1948 also saw other improvements such as new kitchen cabinets and a sink, a photography room, steel lockers and benches and the cleaning up and painting of the kitchen, locker and shower rooms plus the installation of a complete sanitary room.

One of the first promises made by the new President Maurice Sandler last March was to continue to make the clubhouse more attractive and usable in 1949. Under Mr. Sandler the new House Committee in cooperation with Chairman Walter Richardson has been working closely with Club Director Jim Sumner to "keep on the ball" and make more improvements this summer.

new improvements so far this summer include a new club office, the location chosen gives better lighting and more air for morning and afternoon work. A fine new reading or conference room has also been completed.

The Middlets and Juniors will enjoy their newly renovated room with its new insulated ceiling and new light fixtures. A new broad fire escape has been installed as a safety measure. The summer of 1949 also brought completion of two new departments downstairs. They are, a new woodworking shop a new crafts room and a large well lighted brand new Senior Department.

At this moment, it looks as though the final items on the 1949 Summer program of expansion would be a new "Hot Top" playground area in the large space in front of the club. This area of 50 x 120, finished in August, is proving quite an attraction to the boys.

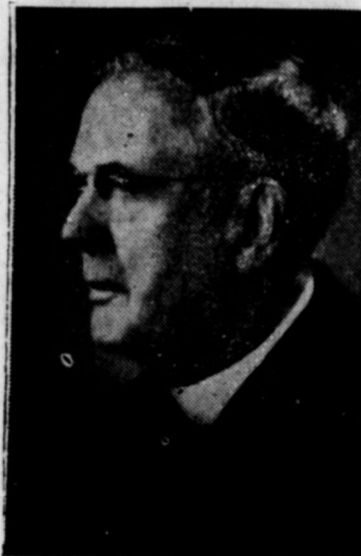

Complete renovation of the bowling alleys from top to bottom, new branches, new score tables, new pins and balls, etc., all made possible by the interest and generosity of a certain man living in a nearby town. This same thoughtful man has also underwritten the expense of renovating the locker and shower rooms which were also completed in October.

While our expansion and renovation program has cost several thousand dollars it is considered money well spent because we have been actually forced to meet the challenge of space and facilities for a membership which has grown from 365 to 1250 in the past two years.

In the words of our Police Chief Archie F. Bullock "it is impossible to calculate the tremendous influence for good that every dollar spent by the Arlington Boys' Club causes in and around our community."

The Arlington Boys' Club is wholly dependent on the Community Fund for its support. All Arlington residents are urged to

St. Brigid Pastor Is Buried This Morning

Rev. William J. McCarthy, 78, pastor of St. Brigid's church here for the past 26 years, died Monday morning at the Cardinal O'Connell House of St. Elizabeth's hospital, Boston, three weeks before the 55th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

Rev. William J. Desmond, pastor of St. Raphael's Church, West Medford, formerly pastor of the Sacred Heart Church here, was the celebrant of the solemn high mass of requiem at St. Brigid's church this morning. Assisting Rev. Fr. Desmond were Rev. Ernest MacDonald of St. Brigid's Church, deacon; Rev. John Fallin of Marblehead, sub-deacon; and Rev. James Daley of Medford Hillside.

The children of St. Brigid's parish attended a mass for Rev. Fr. McCarthy earlier this morning at the church. Offices for the dead were held yesterday afternoon. Burial was at St. Paul's cemetery, Arlington.

Rev. Fr. McCarthy came to the Lexington parish in 1923 from Foxboro and Wrentham which were combined in one parish at that time. He has been pastor there since 1915 and had served as Catholic Chaplain of both the Foxboro and Wrentham mental institutions.

He served as assistant pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in West Lynn from 1895 until 1915, during which time the parish school and convent there were built.

Graduating from Boston College in 1891, Fr. McCarthy entered St. John's Seminary in Brighton and was ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross in Boston on Dec. 20, 1895.

The Lexington pastor is survived by one brother, John McCarthy of Arlington, and two sisters, Miss Mary McCarthy and Miss Jenny McCarthy, both of Lexington. Acting as ushers for this morning's service were: Edward W. McGrory, William Collins, James Leahy, Thomas Ryan, James Sullivan and Martin McDonough, all of Lexington.

Honorary pall bearers included: Dr. William L. Cosgrove, James J.

Walsh Sr., James J. Carrill, Michael J. Hopkins, Thomas G. Lynah, William H. Driscoll, Daniel A. Lynch, Eugene T. Buckley, Edward J. Connors, John J. Rudd, Dennis McNamara Sr., Edmund J. Costello and Arthur Gorman, all of Lexington, and Dr. Robert S. York of Watertown, John F. Walsh of Jamaica Plain and Dr. John Bodie of New Haven, Conn.
